

CITY OF WABASH HOUSING FAIR

The Wabash Housing Fair held on August 24, 2022 at the Wabash County Museum was a great success! Members of the community came out of an awesome evening packed with information. Mayor Scott Long and Grow Wabash Director Keith Gillenwater spoke on all of the exciting new housing developments that are coming to Wabash.

44

NEW AVAILABLE
HOUSING UNITS

Community members had the opportunity to speak with the builders of the new Legacy Heights housing development in Wabash, connect with local realtors, and even speak to lenders and banks to get another step closer toward homeownership!

For more information on how to apply for affordable mortgage products or down payment assistance, connect with a local realtor, access your credit score, and/or get started on getting into a new home in Legacy Heights, download the free Club 720 mobile app and select "Buy a home" today!

